McNALLY COMPOSITE
HIGH SCHOOL

EDMONTON, ALBERTA

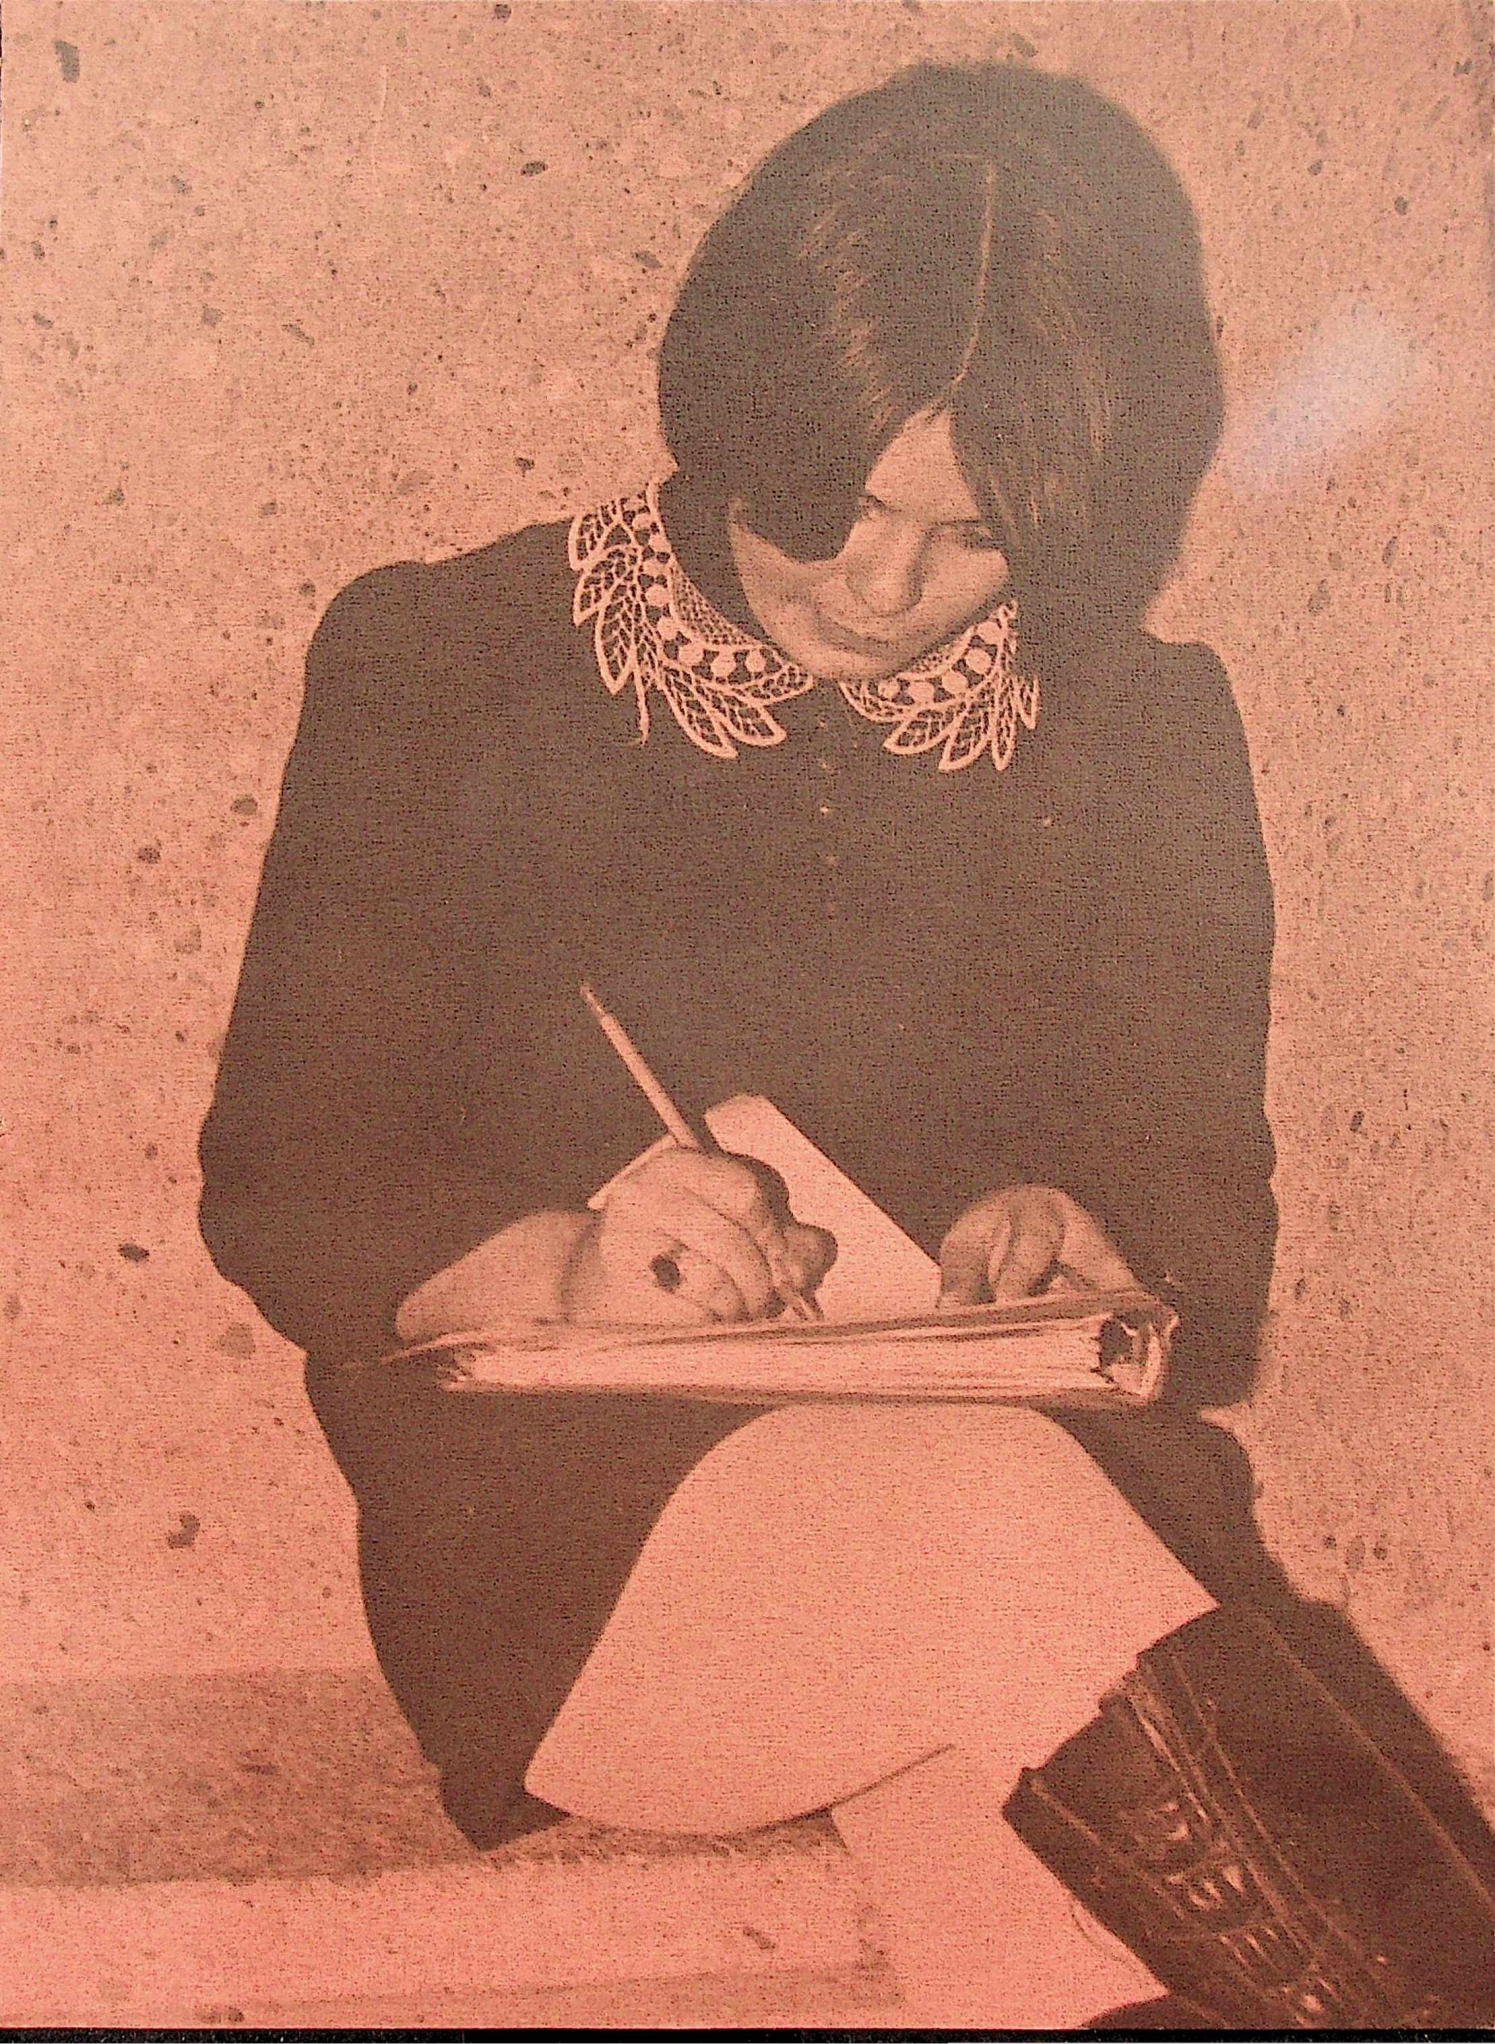

VOLUME V, 1969-70

Somehow pictures tell the story in a language
subtle and vivid...
of events and ideas,
of dreams
and excitement...
of battles, defeats, protests,
and achievements...
on the fields,
around the halls
and in the classrooms.
Reflection and reality-
a narrative of the way
it is and was...
Here is the unfolding
scene...the fun and frustration of it all in an extravagant visual record.

Sometimes the cold and the bleakness
can be felt in different ways.

The seasonal caper which sends the gals on the offensive is the Sadie Hawkins Dance. The theme may be an old one, but it certainly comes on with a modern flair. Over twelve hundred students attended the dance and activities.

"Wait 'til I take it off!"

Before the Christmas break, students and staff gather in the auditorium for the annual lit to laugh awhile at their respective foibles.

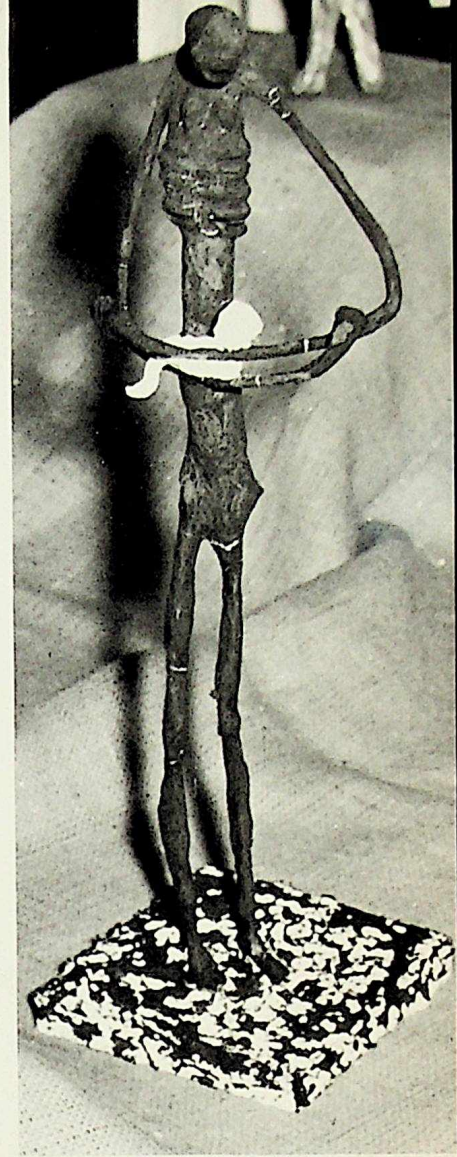

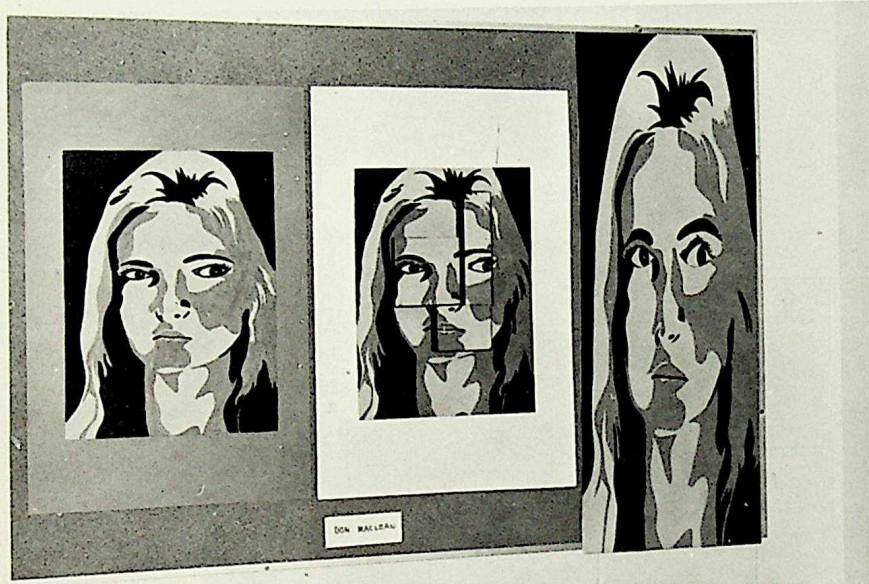

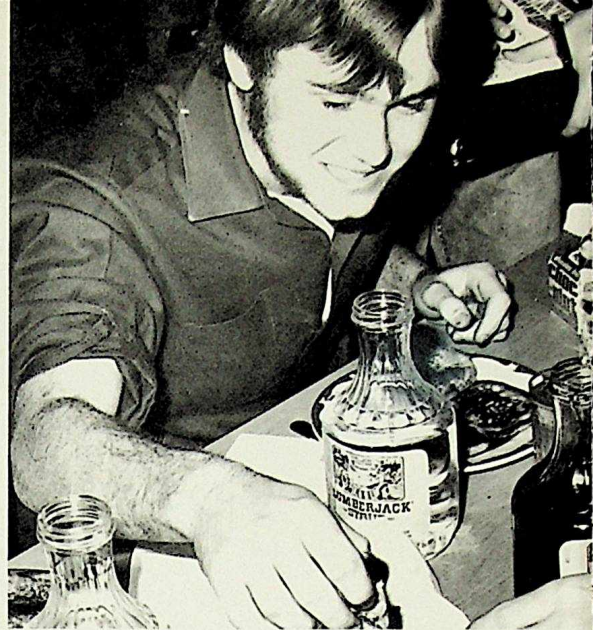

FINE ART DISPLAY AT McNALLY'S OPEN HOUSE

For three days in February the spirit of the north grips McNally. All-out intramural competition develops in a variety of events -- snow-packing, dog sledding, snow shoe race, three-leg ski race, cross country, broom ball . . . and pancake eating . . . The whole bash begins early Monday morning with the pancake breakfast, served to the students by members of the faculty. Those with the extra voracious appetites chew it out in the battle of the bulge . . . Wayne Dwyer, a runaway winner of the contest, consumed twenty three pancakes . . .

J U N I O R S

Experience and Confidence were traits, certainly, not found in abundance at the start of the season. However, with concentrated work, McNally Tigers began to exhibit the kind of performance that added much to the excitement of the later games. Finally, their game against Eastglen (14 - 6 in our favor) demonstrated a definite spirit and a willingness to win, making the team realize that they possessed superior ability over their opponents.

You don't fight the cold.

Lovers, Lovers, Lovers - anywhere and everywhere.

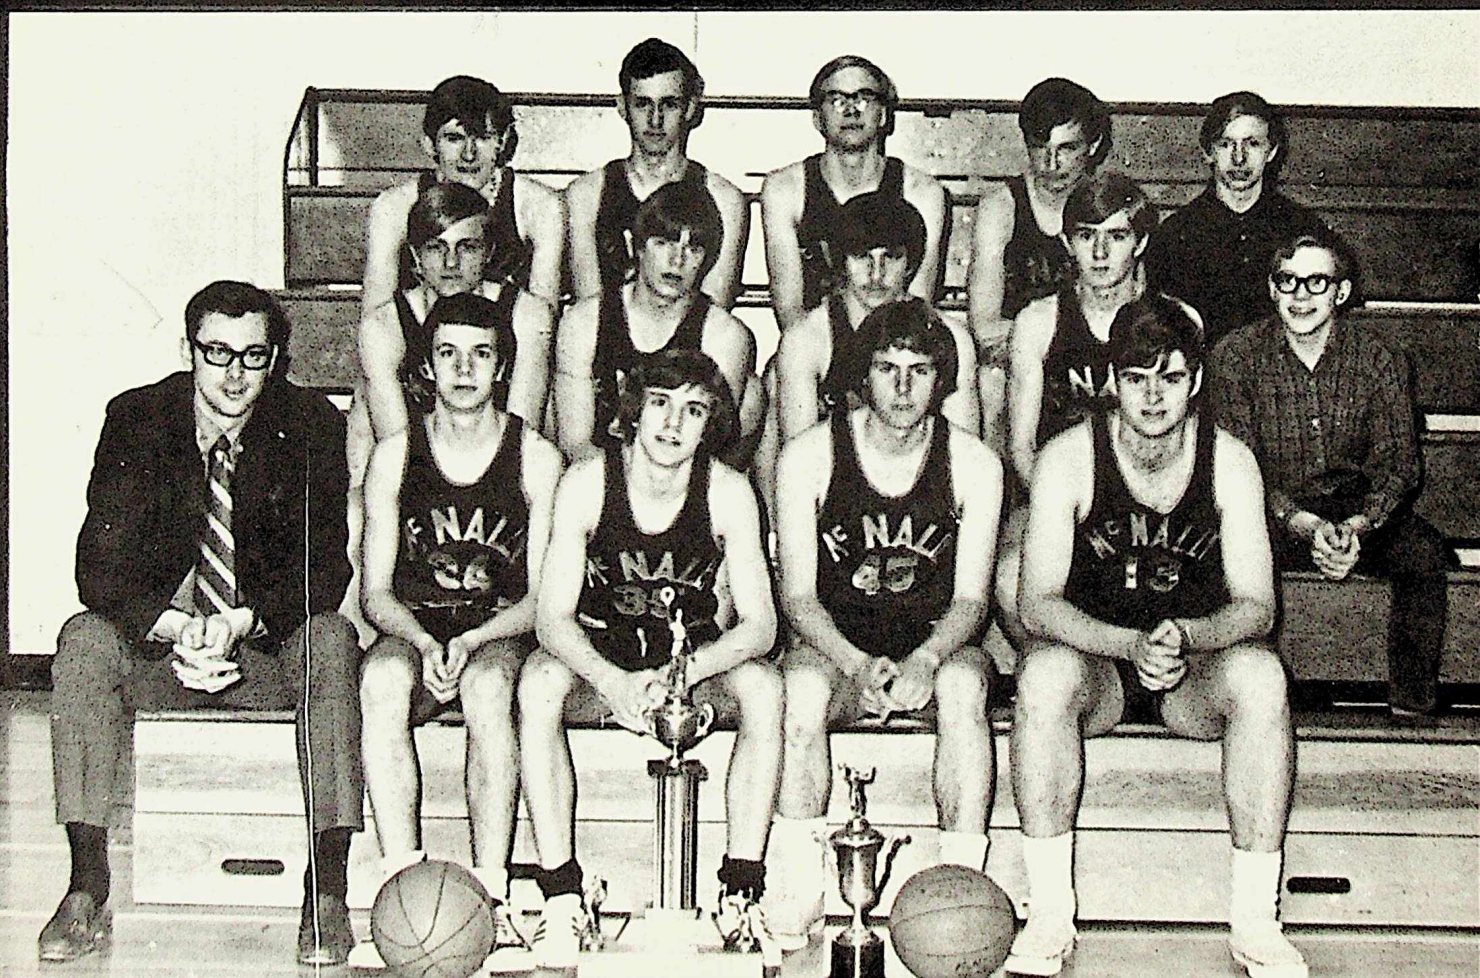

As we go to press, McNally staff and students have received some pleasant and impressive news... The Junior Tigers have just won the High School Championship for the entire city of Edmonton. Losing only two games all season, the Tigers literally walked away with the league trophy. And in the city-wide playoffs, they displayed a degree of poise, style and confidence that decisively dismantled the opposition. We congratulate Coach Krenz and team on their season's success and wish them continued superiority next year.

Serving Northern Alberta For Fifty-Five Years

A black and white photograph of a forest stream. In the foreground, a large, light-colored log lies diagonally across the frame. The stream flows through the center, reflecting the surrounding trees. The background is filled with tall, thin trees and dense foliage, creating a sense of depth and tranquility. The lighting is dramatic, with strong highlights and deep shadows.

Time has a peculiar way of changing, distorting and erasing things... the events and ideas of today become just the memories and reflections of another day, and only the printed record preserves partially the moments we now take for granted.
The Trend staff takes pleasure in presenting this year's edition and hopes that it might become a substantial part of tomorrow's recollections.
